

Early College High School and Pathways in Technology
Mentor/Induction Plan

Pharr-San Juan-Alamo Early College High Schools staff are required to participate in staff development that occurs before, during, and after the school year, as well as in weekly PLCs through the district's evaluation system.

Staff Development Dates

August 12, 2019 – District/Campus Based Staff Development

October 14, 2019 – Campus Based Staff Development

January 7, 2020 - Campus Based Staff Development

Pharr-San Juan-Alamo Independent School District hosts the New Teacher Institute program. The program provides new educators with a comprehensive onboarding process to support instructional skills, and classroom management. Through the program, new educators also continue ongoing professional development and one-to-one instructional coaching during their first year of teaching.
